

Alfasia Alston

December 10, 1925 - January 5, 2021

Alfasia Alston (nee Jones) of Erial, NJ, passed peacefully on January 5, 2021 at the age of 95 years. Treasured daughter of the late John Jones and the late Maggie Jones (nee Carr). Devoted wife of the late Joseph Alston. Beloved mother of the late Eric Alston, the late Crystal Alston, Virgil Alston (Margie), and Astrid Collins (Joseph). Proud grandmother of Charelle Collins (Aminah), Marquis Collins, and Randus Alston. Dear sister of the late Edna Satterfield and the late Louise Hance. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Alfasia was known to many as “Lady”, as she was the epitome of the word. She was a sweet, kind-hearted person, who was eternally selfless. She was always doing for others. To know her was to love her. Alfasia was a God-fearing woman and deeply valued her personal relationship with the Lord. She enjoyed playing the piano all of her life, and even taught others how to play over the years. Alfasia loved nothing more than spending time outdoors tending to her gardens and witnessing the beauty of God’s creation in every blooming flower. Her beautiful, warm presence will be deeply missed by all who came to love her through this life.

Services for Alfasia will be held privately as per her family’s wishes. Donations may be made in her memory to the Alzheimer’s Association, Delaware Valley Chapter, 399 Market Street, Suite 102, Philadelphia, PA 19106. Condolences may be shared at <http://www.earl funeralhome.com>

“ I thank God for the opportunity to meet Ms. Alston many years ago during the wedding ceremony for Joseph and Astrid. She greeted me with a warm and beautiful smile. I found her to be extremely pleasant and kind hearted. Although I did not physically spend much time with Ms. Alston, I grew to know her well through pleasant conversations with Joseph and felt welcomed to call her, Lady.

My heartfelt condolences to Astrid, Joseph, Cherelle, and Marquise. I pray that God will comfort and keep you all during this time.

Love your Sister and Aunt, Rhonda Moore

“ Although I'm going to miss you Lady, I will always have fond memories of our exclusive times together. I will always remember our afternoon talks while waiting for Astrid to come home from work. I would just check-in on you while you were watching Star Trek or reading a book and that would turn into an hour long conversation. I'll remember our occasional lunches together while you listened to my complaints about work. You were always so encouraging and willing to lend an ear. I'll remember our trips to the eye doctor on Route 73 and how you would always try to slip me some gas money. LOL. I'll remember the story I always tell of us in Atlantic City and you tugging at my shirt to place a bet for you. I will always hold onto those memories. But the main thing I'll take from our time together over the years, Lady, is that you did not look at me as just your son-in-law. You treated me and loved me like your own. And I will always cherish that feeling. Love you, Lady. I'm going to miss you. Rest in peace. Jay

“ Mom ill miss your laugh and your smile. You were the best mother-in-law and I'll carry in my heart always. Your kindness; compassion; generosity and thoughtfulness toward others was always so inspiring to me. Your unwavering trust in the lord and words of wisdom always gave me strength. There is so much I could say, but to know that you knew how much I loved you and even greater that you loved me is all that matters. I know I'll see you again mom. Rest in Heavenly Peace.
