“ So many wonderful memories. I just don't know where to begin. Trips to Atlantic City, trips to the Amish Country and so much wonderful food. We would get up in the morning and say - where should we go today? It usually took us till 1 PM to make a decision. Hosting my friends from Phillie, lots of company around the dining room table with sandwich fixings or cake and coffee. Lots of cake and coffee with many, many visitors over the years. I loved just sitting in the kitchen watching the birds feed out of the feeder. BBQ's out back, so many shopping trips - K-Mart and the Dollar Store. Catherine loved the Dollar Store. She shopped until I dropped. Loved sitting in the bar room and having a glass of wine, listening to music or my father playing the organ. One time, I was there for Easter Sunday. I was trying to help with the table set-up and broke the leg on the dining room table. It got fixed, and we had a wonderful egg hunt in the backyard. We would always get a hoagie or steak sandwich when I visited. The day Catherine passed, they opened a Dunkin Donuts out here in California - what a coincidence. Catherine loved her Dunkin Donuts. We also had some nice times when Catherine and my dad visited California. It's been quite the journey with so many wonderful memories. Thank you for all of them. Sending my heartfelt sympathy to Lorraine and her family. Catherine is at peace now and resting with her loved ones.

“ As most of you know my grandmother had a very strong personality, she never missed a trick. I would spend many summers with her and Pop-Pop. I loved watching Johnny Carson, Lawrence Welk, and the Mummers Parade with them. I am at peace with her passing watching her the last few years has been difficult. Thanks for the great memories grandmom!!

“ Dear Lorraine, Michele, Denise and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Grandmom Cass was one of a kind. I fondly remember spending time at your home when Grandmom was visiting, and what a kick she was. The last years of her life were a struggle, but now she is at peace. Please know Blake and I are thinking of you during this time, and are sending hugs your way. Much Love, Stacy
