

George J. Palermo, Sr.

May 16, 1936 - September 24, 2017

George J. Palermo, Sr., age 81 of Williamstown, NJ, formerly of Clementon, NJ, passed away on Sunday, September 24, 2017. Devoted husband of the late RoseMarie Palermo. Beloved father of Deborah Gaynor and the late George J. Palermo, Jr. Loving grandfather of George Miraglia (Jill) and Christina McGlinchey (Patrick). Proud great grandfather of George and James Miraglia and Scarlett, Simone, Jude, and Stella McGlinchey. He is also survived by his two brothers, Anthony Palermo of Philadelphia, PA and Daniel Palermo of Philadelphia, PA, as well as several nieces and nephews.

George was born in Philadelphia, PA and was a longtime Gloucester Township resident. He served his country in the United States Army for eight years. He worked for numerous contracting companies throughout Philadelphia as an operating engineer. He was a loving father who enjoyed spending time with his family. He was the go-to handyman in the family and was more than willing to help out with a project of any kind. Like any good Philadelphia born man he loved football. He was great at finding recipes to give to his wife, RoseMarie, to out her “domestic engineer” skills to the test. If you could count on anyone to have a lottery ticket for a big drawing it was George. The thing he ultimately loved to do with his spare time was to go fishing with family. It didn’t matter if he was out on the ocean or sitting on a lake, if there were fish to be had and loved ones to fish with, he was in his glory.

Visitation will be Friday, September 29, 2017, 10:00 am to 11:00 am at our Lady of Hope Parish / St. Jude’s Church, 402 S. Black Horse Pike, Blackwood, NJ 08012, where his Funeral Mass will begin at 11:00 am. Entombment of his urn at St. Joseph’s Cemetery Columbarium will follow the Mass. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his memory to the American Cancer society, 1851 Old Cuthbert Road, Cherry Hill, NJ 08034 or to the American Heart Association, P.O. Box 417005, Boston, MA 02241-7005.
