“ Mommy was my Mother in law for 38 yrs. She was the best at helping our young family when we didn't have a lot of money. She made nice party's and christenings party's for our kids she would make a huge pot of meatballs and sausage for many to enjoy. She treated Me with kindness and respect never telling me how or what to do with my family. When She stayed with us I hardly knew she was in the house. I always loved her cute little laugh. She never forgot our birthdays or anniversaries with a card and gifts. John and Lori took good care of Mommy as she got older. It's nice that Mommy lived in her home for all the days she could. John and Lori made that possible. Mommy was the old school Italian lady that we could easily love. We would all do well to learn by her example of love and kindness. I was a lucky man to have Mommy in my life.
