“ I have taught many students over my twenty years of teaching, but John was a boy I have never forgotten. He was a creative writer and artist, and I still have one of the graffiti art drawings he made when we were reading The Outsiders. At the beginning of the year, the students had to write a poem about a person and bring in a picture. John brought in a precious picture of his mother and wrote a lovely poem about her. While all of that made him stand out from the rest, his kindness is what I remember the most.

For the entire year, he sat near a student who had challenges and never failed to help that person when they had questions or were feeling frustrated. When years later I found out that Dawn, his aunt, was our postal delivery person, I couldn't believe the connection we had.

John was a special person and he will be greatly missed.

“ Dawn, my heart is breaking for you! I know how very much John Dalton meant to you! He loved you so very much. You did such an amazing job raising him. He turned out to be one special and loved young man, because of the love he received from you and Tom. I can't imagine what you are going through, but if you need absolutely anything, please let me know. I hope you can find some peace in how much he was loved by everyone that knew him. My heart goes out to you and the whole family.
